ALC Health Offers Convenient Access to Quality Care with HTH Worldwide Services

Adds Mobile and Online Tools, Contracted Doctors and Hospitals in 180 Countries

March 17, 2010 (Radnor, PA) — HTH Worldwide, a global health and safety services company, today announced it has signed an agreement with ALC Health, based in the United Kingdom, giving ALC members access to HTH's contracted community of doctors and hospitals in 180 countries as well as HTH's proprietary mobile and online medical assistance tools. These services allow world travelers to search for and conveniently access top quality medical providers all around the world.

ALC Health offers a comprehensive range of flexible and affordable global healthcare insurance solutions to thousands of expatriates and their families on a group and individual basis. Now ALC members will be able to use their mobile phones to conveniently search for, select and map carefully selected doctors, hospitals and pharmacies, as well as to translate brand names of medications and key medical terms and phrases.

"ALC Health is delighted to be able to offer its members not only comprehensive health plans with access to the highest quality health services worldwide, but the very latest mobile and online tools to manage their health," said Andrew Apps, Director of ALC. "We believe that HTH's services will add further to ALC's offering and help to maintain its position as a leading provider of international private medical insurance by expanding our business through greater value and protection."

"HTH Worldwide welcomes the opportunity to serve ALC Health and its members," said Angelo Masciantonio, President and Chief Executive Officer of HTH Worldwide. "We are proud to be recognized by ALC for our leadership and best practices when serving the globally mobile."
